SUBJECT.

Bills for the remuneration due to the Liquor Carriage Contractors.

AST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 1045 & 1476/1478 dated 18th Sept & 27th Oct 93 respectively
from ~~the Excise Comrs in Mysore~~

Bills for these charges were ~~being~~ withheld submitted to Govt for sanction before audit in the Comptroller's office. This precaution was perhaps necessary in the former contracts, as large sums were due to Govt from the Contractors in the shape of arrears in connection with their ~~in the~~ Arrack Contracts. The Contractors in question are mere Carriage Contractors.

2/. Now the rates are such as are formally sanctioned by Govt & there are no arrears due to Govt from the Contractors. Under these circumstances, ~~if approved~~, permission may be granted for the forwardal of these bills direct to the Compts office after check & Counter-Signature by the Excise Comrs.

3. The Excise Comrs has also suggested the adoption of this procedure in para 2 of his letter No 1476/174 dy 27th Oct 93 now pending ~~for~~ Orders.
